

Great Lakes CARAVAN

Bringing Great Lakes Performing Artist Associates artists to students for assemblies, master classes, workshops, residencies and side by side performance opportunities.

This activity is supported in part by Michigan Arts and Culture Council, The National Endowment for the Arts and the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor.

CARAVAN programs are FREE and can be designed with ANY of our roster artists. Some examples below.

Alice McAllister Tillman

Music of African American composers and music by composers of African descent.

Abigail Stauffer & Dave Haughey

Composition, Improvisation, and Songwriting

Planet D Nonet

Big Band Jazz and Improvisation

Dave Sharp Worlds

Quartet Music and Culture of Turkey, Egypt, Ukraine, India, Bulgaria and Greece.

The Innocents

Percussion/Performance Art Piece appropriate for High School students which addresses the issue of wrongful imprisonment and exoneration.

Westbound Situation

Elementary, Middle or High School students, string chopping techniques, arranging, improvisation, crossover techniques of combining classical, jazz and folk music

Yang and Olivia

Chinese and Taiwanese cultural and musical history plus supplemental violin or piano lessons, practice techniques, side by side instruction.

How to Reserve your Caravan

1. Email us at glpaaoffice@gmail.com with suggested dates, times, grade levels, and instruments.
2. Design your program: assembly, master class, workshop, residency, side by side performance
3. Enjoy!

Performing Artist Associates

greatlakespaa.org | 734.276.8558